Zero Tolerance Policy Agreement

The New Life Blaze Track Club is a non-profit organization composed of community volunteers. Our club is dedicated to the development of youth athletes through exposure to track and field. In an effort to control the safety of our athletes as well as our volunteers, we have implemented a zero tolerance policy.

The following activities will be considered a violation of the zero tolerance policy and is grounds for immediate loss of team membership at the discretion of the club's governing body:

- Fighting and or threats
- Aggressive body language
- Cursing
- Display of gang signs
- Refusal to follow directions
- Making uninvited physical contact
- Unsafe practices or behaviors
- Other behaviors not deemed representative of a Blaze Youth Athlete

The above items will apply to all participants of the New Life Blaze Track Club. Any disorderly activity displayed by adults can be reported to the local authorities and charges may be filed. Parents/guardians will be responsible for the expenses athletes accrue due to vandalism, bonds if arrested, tickets, fines, and any stolen property or retribution.

By the attached application, you agree and understand this policy. You will not be refunded any fees paid and you will not attend any practice sessions once barred from the team, nor will you pursue representation from others on your behalf during practices. You will not be allowed to congregate with the New Life Blaze Track Club, nor will you continue to compete in the New Life Blaze Track Club uniform or attire.

Thank You,

New Life Blaze Track Club Staff
